

Financing Repression

Join us for the launch of the new report of the Defenders in Development campaign, that reveals how development banks are heavily investing in countries with closed civic space; explains why civic space restrictions are a critical concern; and presents a series of recommendations that development banks should follow before approving such projects.

Speakers

- Mary Lawlor | UN Special Rapporteur on Human Rights Defenders
- Umida Niyazova | Uzbek Forum for Human Rights
- Dalile Antúnez | Coalition for Human Rights in Development

Additional panelists still to be confirmed.
