

Members

Partners

on issues such as community-led development, transparency, accountability, participation, climate justice, consent and civic space.

working together facilitated by an International Secretariat through thematic & regional working groups

Guided by different governance structures

Community Resource Exchange

Composed by 10 members Elected by Coalition members only

Defenders in Development campaign

International Secretariat and governance structures

